DETAILED ACTION

Please note the change in examiner.

1. The Response filed March 14, 2002 is acknowledged. Claims 4-7 and 38-49 are currently pending.

2. It is noted that a previous Restriction Requirement and election of species was performed in the instant case. However, upon review of the instant case by the new examiner, it was deemed to be unclear which claims should be under examination and which read on the elected species. It is also unclear as to the specific elected species since applicant originally elected a sub-generic.

3. Due to this confusion, it is unclear what species were examined by the previous examiner. Therefore, to clarify the record and prevent any further confusion in the instant case, the previous species election is withdrawn and a new species election is set forth below.

Election/Restriction

4. Claims 4-7 and 38-49 are generic to a plurality of disclosed patentably distinct species comprising compounds of widely varying structure. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed.

5. Applicant should elect, for purposes of search, a single, fully-defined compound. That is, all atoms and bonds of each and every variable group should be defined. It is noted that applicant's previous election (in the Response filed July 24, 2000) only defines a sub-generic compound with respect to the R^7 and R^4/R^5 groups. The instant species election requires that one - and only one - compound be elected; the elected species should contain no variable groups. Also, a listing of claims readable on the elected species should be provided (see paragraph 10 below).

6. The species are distinct, each from the other, because their structures and modes of action are different. They would also differ in their reactivity and the starting materials from which they are made. Moreover, the species could be separately classified based on their divergent structures. Therefore, the species have different issues regarding patentability and represent patentably distinct subject matter.

7. See MPEP 811, quoted below:

"37 CFR 1.142(a), second sentence states: "[i]f the distinctness and independence of the invention be clear, such requirement will be made before any action upon the merits; however, it may be made at any time before final action in the case at the discretion of the examiner." This means the examiner should make a proper requirement as early as possible in the prosecution, in the first action if possible, otherwise, as soon as the need for a proper requirement develops. Before making a restriction requirement after the first action on the merits, the examiner will consider whether there will be a serious burden if restriction is not required."

The examiner's position is that a serious search burden exists due to the widely varying structures of the species.

8. Also see MPEP 811.02:

“Since 37 CFR 1.142(a) provides that restriction is proper at any stage of prosecution up to final action, a second requirement may be made when it becomes proper, even though there was a prior requirement with which applicant complied. Ex parte Benke, 1904 C.D. 63, 108 O.G. 1588 (Comm'r Pat. 1904).”

9. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

10. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

11. Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

12. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

13. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143). Because the above restriction/election requirement is complex, a telephone call to applicants to request an oral election was not made. See MPEP § 812.01.

14. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
